23 TARRANT COUNTY RESTAURANTS TO PARTICIPATE IN 25th ANNUAL DFW RESTAURANT WEEK, AUGUST 8-SEPTEMBER 4

20 percent of Tarrant County proceeds benefit Fort Worth-based nonprofit Lena Pope

FORT WORTH, Texas (July 11, 2022) – Twenty-three (23) restaurants in greater Tarrant County are participating in the 2022 DFW Restaurant Week, which officially takes place August 8-14, with optional extension lasting until September 4. This year marks the 25th anniversary of DFW Restaurant Week, which is North Texas' largest annual culinary event and the second longest-running restaurant week in the U.S. (behind New York City).

For each meal purchased at a Tarrant-area participating restaurant, 20 percent will be donated back to Fort Worth-based nonprofit Lena Pope, which provides prevention and early intervention services that support child development and improve the behavioral and mental health of children and families. With more than $2.7 million raised since 1998, DFW Restaurant Week is one of Lena Pope's largest annual fundraisers.

This year's participating restaurants will offer three-course prix fixe dinners for $39 or $49, with some offering two-course lunch or brunch menus for $24 or $29. In an effort to clearly communicate which Tarrant-area restaurants are participating and what menus will be offered when, Lena Pope has developed a new website landing page with easy, at-a-glance, up-to-date information: www.LenaPope.org/DFWRestaurantWeek.

Reservations for 2022 DFW Restaurant Week are being accepted now and can be made via OpenTable or by calling the restaurants directly. Tarrant County restaurants participating in the 2022 DFW Restaurant Week include:
