Lena Pope Home Inc. ("Lena Pope") is providing an update to its prior notice regarding a recent data security incident that may have resulted in unauthorized acquisition of your sensitive personal information. We are now providing you with additional details about this Incident, what we have done in response to the Incident, and resources available to help you protect against the potential misuse of your information.

What Happened?

On September 30, 2023, Lena Pope detected unusual activity on one of their email accounts. Upon discovery of this incident, Lena Pope immediately secured the account and conducted an internal investigation into the matter.

Based on its preliminary investigation, Lena Pope determined private information might be included in emails and files potentially accessed without authority. In an abundance of caution, on October 2, 2023, Lena Pope posted notice of the Incident on its website and notified potentially impacted individuals by email to the extent emails were available. On or about October 5, 2023, Lena Pope also provided preliminary notice to the Texas Attorney General and Texas Department of Health and Human Services.

Lena Pope subsequently retained Wilson Elser to assist with this Incident and, at the advice of counsel, engaged a specialized third-party cybersecurity firm to conduct a comprehensive forensic investigation to determine the nature and scope of the incident. The forensic investigation concluded on February 1, 2024. The forensic investigation determined that one email account and certain files may have been compromised by an unauthorized actor. Based on these findings, Lena Pope reviewed the affected files and emails to identify the specific individuals and types of information that may have been compromised. On February 5, 2024, Lena Pope finalized the list of individuals to notify and identified their addresses to the extent available.

What Information Was Involved?

Although Lena Pope has no evidence that any sensitive information has been misused by third parties as a result of this incident, we are notifying you out of an abundance of caution and for purposes of full transparency. Information varied by individual. Based on the investigation, the following information related to you may have been subject to unauthorized access: first name, last name, telephone number, email address, date of birth, health insurance policy number and certain limited personal health information. Social Security Numbers and financial information were not impacted.

Specifically, Lena Pope internally investigated the incident, engaged legal counsel for guidance, and also engaged a specialized third-party cybersecurity firm to confirm the security of our environment and conduct a comprehensive forensic investigation to determine the nature and scope of the incident. Lena Pope also implemented enhanced technical safeguards, implemented multifactor authentication and GEO IP blocking for Office 365, provided additional security training for staff members, and enhanced data security measures and will continue to enhance the security of our systems. Lastly, Lena Pope reviewed all impacted systems to identify the potentially affected individuals in preparation for notice. Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information

Credit Reports: You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, whether or not you suspect any unauthorized activity on your account. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com, or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228. You can also order your annual free credit report by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0155-free-credit-reports>) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency. You may make that request by certified mail, overnight mail, regular stamped mail, or by following the instructions found at the websites listed below. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse or a minor under the age of 16, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. As of September 21, 2018, it is free to place, lift, or remove a security freeze. You may also place a security freeze for children under the age of 16. You may obtain a free security freeze by contacting any one or more of the following national consumer reporting agencies:

Equifax Security Freeze P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348 1-800-349-9960 https://www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services/credit-freeze/	Experian Security Freeze P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com/freeze/center.htm 1	TransUnion Security Freeze P.O. Box 160 Woodlyn, PA 19094 1-888-909-8872 www.transunion.com/credit-freeze

Fraud Alerts: You can place fraud alerts with the three credit bureaus by phone and online with:

- Equifax (https://assets.equifax.com/assets/personal/Fraud_Alert_Request_Form.pdf);
- TransUnion (<https://www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts>); or
- Experian (<https://www.experian.com/fraud/center.html>).

A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. As of September 21, 2018, initial fraud alerts last for one year. Victims of identity theft can also get an extended fraud alert for seven years. The phone numbers for all three credit bureaus are at the bottom of this page.

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant and monitor your accounts for suspicious or unusual activity.

File Police Report: You have the right to file or obtain a police report if you experience identity fraud. Please note that in order to file a crime report or incident report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide proof that you have been a victim. A police report is often required to dispute fraudulent items. You can generally report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

FTC and Attorneys General: You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, security freezes, and the steps you can take to protect yourself, by contacting the consumer reporting agencies, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission can be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, www.identitytheft.gov, 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338), TTY: 1-866-653-4261.
