40 TARRANT COUNTY RESTAURANTS TO PARTICIPATE IN 28th ANNUAL DFW RESTAURANT WEEK, AUGUST 1- SEPTEMBER 1

20 percent of Tarrant County proceeds benefit Fort Worth-based nonprofit Lena Pope

FORT WORTH, Texas (July 8, 2024) – Forty (40) of Tarrant County’s finest restaurants are participating in the 2024 DFW Restaurant Week, which kicks off with Preview Weekend on August 1-4, followed by the “Main Week” on August 5-11, with optional extension lasting until September 1. This year marks the 28th anniversary of DFW Restaurant Week, which is North Texas’ largest annual culinary event and the second longest-running restaurant week in the U.S. (behind New York City).

Participating restaurants will offer three-course prix fixe dinners for $49 or $59, with some offering two-course lunch or brunch menus for $29. For each meal purchased at a Tarrant-area participating restaurant, 20 percent will be donated back to Fort Worth-based nonprofit Lena Pope, which provides evidence-based and research-tested counseling, education, and behavior intervention programs to local children and families.

Lena Pope has been the Tarrant County beneficiary of DFW Restaurant Week since 1998, with more than $3 million raised from the proceeds of Tarrant County participating restaurants over the past 27 years. Last year alone, DFW Restaurant Week raised a total of $545,128, with $184,925 benefitting Lena Pope.

“The support Lena Pope receives during DFW Restaurant Week, from our community and from the amazing restaurants, is a vital part of our ability to provide accessible and affordable programs,” said Ashley Elgin, PhD, CEO of Lena Pope. “Make your reservations to dine out this August at any of the 40 participating Tarrant Area restaurants and relish the unique opportunity to help children and families thrive while enjoying a delicious meal.”

ABOUT LENA POPE

Serving children and families for 94 years, Lena Pope has a rich and storied history in Fort Worth. Since its inception in 1930, Lena Pope has identified the needs of local children and delivered effective services to meet those needs. Today, Lena Pope’s programming focuses on prevention and early intervention services that support child development and improve behavioral and mental health. By investing in high-quality early education, mental health services, and behavioral interventions early on, Lena Pope offers Fort Worth and Tarrant County children the tools necessary for success.
